Creating a digital career portal for students – Experiences from a two-year development project

ANNA HJALMERS MATTSSON & ELIN HOLGERSSON – LUND UNIVERSITY

Why career?

The importance of Career Management Skills and Career Guidance

"...a range of competences which provide structured ways for individuals and groups to gather, analyse, synthesise and organise self, educational and occupational information, as well as the skills to make and implement decisions and transitions"

- European Lifelong Guidance Policy Network
